

Flask Lab

Create a student information system where you will be inserting the following data:

Id (It should be a Primary key)

name

age

group

college name

save the data in database and try to provide the links to delete and update the information.

(Do as explained in the lecture) 😊